MISSOULA--

Several hundred Montana high school students will participate in the High School Speech and Drama Invitational Tournament Saturday, Oct. 29, at the University of Montana in Missoula.

Dr. James H. Polsin, assistant professor of interpersonal communication at UM, who is tournament coordinator, said Missoula area residents still are needed to serve as judges for the speech meet, which will be headquartered in the Montana Rooms on the third floor of the University Center (UC).

More than 300 students from 14 western Montana schools are preregistered for Saturday's tournament, which is sponsored by the UM Department of Interpersonal Communication and the Debate and Oratory Association of the Associated Students of UM.

Polsin said those interested in serving as tournament judges may contact him at his office, room 346 of the UM Liberal Arts Building, or phone 243-4463 or 243-4293.

Saturday's tournament will begin at 7:30 a.m. and will conclude with an awards assembly at 7:30 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom.

Tournament events will include senior and junior debate; original oratory; memorized public address with analysis; impromptu, expository and extemporaneous speaking; oral interpretation of literature; student congress; humorous and serious acting (both solo and duo), and pantomime. Trophies will be awarded for first place in all events, with certificates of award for the first three places.
